- e. The monitoring mechanism put in place by the Government to ensure transparency in the admission under the EWS category in educational institutions?

EWS Certificate Verification

Admission under the Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) Reservation requires an EWS certificate issued by a competent authority (usually the Tehsildar/Revenue Officer).

Sikkim University verify the authenticity of the certificate during admission.

Fake or incorrect certificates can lead to cancellation of admission.

2. Centralized Admission Portals

Sikkim University has centralized online registration systems to reduce manipulation. These portals maintain digital records of category claims, making the process transparent.

3. Central Admission Committees and Working Committee on admission

Every year Sikkim University forms central admission committee and working committee on admission responsible for:

Verifying documents

Ensuring reservation quotas are correctly applied
