HOW TO REACH GANGTOK :

Siliguri (West Bengal) is the nearest city connects to Gangtok. The airport of Siliguri is located at Bagdogra and the Railway station is known as New Jalpaiguri. The New Jalpaiguri station is about 8 km away from Siliguri. Siliguri is well connected by road networks to various neighbouring states. Gangtok is about 125 Kms away from Bagdogra, the nearest Airport, and well connected by most of the domestic flights operators from the capital cities of North East India as well as major cities like Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Guwahati, Kolkata, New Delhi, Mumbai, etc. Regular bus/taxi services are available in plenty between Bagdogra/Siliguri/New Jalpaiguri and Gangtok. You may go to the office of Sikkim National Transport (SNT) on the Hill Cart Road, Siliguri to get a direct bus service up to Gangtok. Taxis (shared) are the most widely available public transport within Gangtok.

Wreathed in clouds, Gangtok, the capital city of Sikkim is located on a ridge at a height of 5500 feet. With a spectacular view of the Khangchendzonga, the town provides the perfect base for travel through the state. Once an important transit point for traders travelling between Tibet and India, it is today a busy administrative and business centre and presents an interesting mix of cultures and communities. The weather during beginning of March is generally pleasant and cool with the temperature hovering between 15-20 degrees centigrade.
