Circular/2023

CIRCULAR ON MONITORING OF ADVANCE FOR CONTINGENT AND MISCELLANEOUS PURPOSE AND REDUCE CASH TRANSACTIONS

In view of the repeated observation of the Audit on release and settlement of "advance for official work" to the Teaching & Non-Teaching Staff of the University, the following guidelines are issued herewith for strict compliance:

- 1. Rule 172 (1) of GFR 2017 states that ordinarily, payments for services rendered or supplies made should be released only after the services have been rendered or supplies made. However, it may become necessary to make advance payments in some cases. However, such advances should not exceed 30% of the contract value in case of a private firm, 40% in case of Govt. agency /PSU and 50% for repairings. While making such advance payments, adequate safeguards in form of bank guarantee, etc. should be obtained from the firm. (this guideline is just excerpts of Rule 172(1), the detail may be perused from the website of DoE).
- 2. The excerpts of the Rule 323 of GFR for "Advances for Contingent and Miscellaneous purpose" says that Heads of Office may sanction advances to a Government Servant for purchase of goods or services or for any other special purpose needed for the management of the office subject to:
 - a. The purchase or other purpose can not be managed under the normal procedures, envisaging post-procurement payment procedure.
 - b. The adjustment bill, along with balance if any, shall be submitted by the Government servant within fifteen days of drawal of advance, failing which the advance or balance shall be recovered from his/her next salary(ies).
- 3. Encouraging digital banking and UPI based transactions has been one of the important instruction of the Governemnt, leading to several checks and balances and reporting obligations by the University. Income Tax Department and Govt. of India put so many restrictions time to time on cash payments and encourage digital mode of payments. Further, vide OM No 649 dated 05.12.2016 issued by Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, Govt. of India, no payment in excess of Rs. 5,000 can be made other than through e-payment.
- 4. In view of above prevalent guidelines issued by the Government of India, following advices are issued for strict adherence by all concerned:
 - The Official should ask for advance only in cases where the post-procurement payment is not possible.
 - b. If advance is inevitable, then it should be paid by the University to the Agency/Organization within the provision of Rule 172 of GFR 2017 (please refer Sl.1 above)
