Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav

International Youth Day

15 August 1947 is the landmark date in Indian History when after years of struggle the nation attained its freedom from colonial yoke. The day has immense importance for everyone living in the free air of the country. Thus, Sikkim University NSS celebrated Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav by organising several programs. In the series of event on the occasion of 'International Youth Day' on 12 August a special lecture for the students and NSS Volunteers of Sikkim University on the theme "Intergenerational Solidarity: Creating a World for all Ages" was organised. The lecture was delivered by Professor Tapan Mahanty, Professor - National Law Institute University, Bhopal. He delivered his lecture on the topic "Breaking the Age Barrier: Solidarity, Equity and Excellence" with a focus on intergenerational environmental equity and blessed the students with his thoughts, knowledge and expertise.

Poetry Competition

The cell also organised a Poetry Competition in Lepcha, Bhutia, Limbu, Nepali, Hindi and English on 14.08.22. The program was organised in the presence of Dr. Nidhi Saxena (NSS Coordinator), Dr. Dewchandra Subba (Program Officer Unit II) and Miss Rinchen Ongmoo Lepcha (Program Officer Unit III). Every participant showcased their poem in different languages and in their own unique way. As it is rightly said “Language is not genetic gift, it is a social gift. Learning a new language is becoming a member of the club- the community of speakers of that language.” Today’s program was a wonderful and unique opportunity for all of participants and an event to understand and listen to different languages.
